Cochran on the West. They will relieve the monotony of the tomato-cans, tin kettles, old chairs, rotten grapes, ornamental and decaying vegetables that are ornament that place—and which the Health Committee has been able to see.

COME IN AND SIGN THE PETITION.

The List Open at The Ledger Office—Will Require Nearly 700 Signatures.

Before the County Judge can order an election for Free Turpikes, he must be presented with a petition signed by 15 per cent of the voters who voted at the last general or county election.

At the gubernatorial election held in November, 1895, there were 4,430 votes cast in Mason county for Governor.

Fifteen per cent of this number would be 665.

There is now open at THE LEDGER office a petition to the County Judge, requesting him to call an election in November next, that the people may vote as to whether they do or do not want free turpikes.

Call in and sign it.

of a novel "goldbug" campaign badge.

ANOTHER SHOOTING.

Early Shoffett Plunks Martin Mc-Donough a Couple of Times.

Martin McDonough was shot a couple of times last evening, but he is not seriously hurt.

The trouble took place at Poyntz Bros.
Distillery in the West End.

Early Shoffett has been in the employ of the Poyntz Bros. for some time, and last evening afterwards he was attending to his business as usual.

McDonough went to the premises and sought a quarrel with Shoffett.

The latter, after having been threatened, prepared himself for defense, still keeping out of the way of his tormentor.

Finally McDonough followed him into the boiler-room and began the most violent abuse.

Shoffett entreated him to go away, and words having failed to provoke a conflict McDonough seized a piece of iron and dealt Shoffett a heavy blow across the forehead.

Although dashed by the blow Shoffett drew a pistol and fired twice, one ball striking McDonough in the stomach and the other in the breast.

Neither wound is thought to be serious.
Shoffett immediately came to town and surrendered himself, entering bond in $1,000 for his appearance before Judge Rustine at 10 o'clock this morning.

Messrs. Charles R. and Ben B. Poyntz becoming his sureties.

YESTERDAY'S GAME.

The Knoxville Indians Won By a Score of 7 to 5.

Yesterday's game at Knoxville was won by the Indians.

The score was—Knoxville, 7;
Maysville, 5.

There's no excuse to be found in the extender why the Kurels should ever lose a game to the Indians, as our boys are better all round ball-players by far than the Knoxville team.

Maybe it's the tidal wave of hard luck that strikes the boys sometimes.

But look out for ball-playing when the League season opens.

LONG LIFE ENDED.

Sketch of the Late C. Z. Duley of Fleming County.

THE LEDGER yesterday printed a brief announcement of the death of Mr. C. Z.
Duley at the home of his son in law, Mr.
John N. Lee, near Tilton, on Wednesday, July 29th, at 6 o'clock p. m., in his 79th year.

The following sketch of his long life is from The Flemingsburg Times-Democrat, edited by his son, Mr. Hiram Duley:

Charles Zedock Duley was the youngest son of Zadock and Susanah Duley, and was born at the old homestead near Tilton March 17th, 1818. December 31st, 1848, he was married to Sophia Northcott Duley, who survives him. They were born four children, the writer being the oldest. Mrs. John N. Lee, Mrs. J.

C. B. Souley, now dead, and John Duley of Maysville. To his children he was a loving father, anxious to promote the temporal and spiritual welfare of those whom the Lord had given him.

For sixty years he had been a member of the M. E. Church, South, and though for three years he had been a helpless paralytic, unable to engage in the acts of devotion which had characterized his whole life, we feel safe in saying that the Lord was his Shepherd and is now feeding him beside the still waters. Of his life and character as a citizen and a neighbor it would perhaps not be proper for us to speak, but those who knew him during his long sojourn in this country can testify. After a long and irremediable illness, though not racked by acute pain, the end came at the stroke of 6 o'clock, and the Lord of the Harvest summoned him from labor to rest and refreshment, and he answered the summons without a tremor.

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

The funeral took place from the homestead at 9 o'clock this morning, and the remains were to rest in the beautiful

With Nearly Forty Years

Of successful experience in the manufacture of Watch Movements and Watch Cases, and with the mechanical knowledge gained in the construction of special machinery and tools necessary for the manufacture of watches, we have reason to believe that no factory in the world is better able to produce a bicycle of superior design and workmanship. Our machinery is the finest and most modern in existence. Our workmen are trained to a greater degree of accuracy than is usually observed in any bicycle factory. Where is the bicycle factory that is capable of producing a machine made equal to a Duerber-Hampden Watch or machinery required to manufacture same?

These Bicycles, as well as a full line of the Duerber-Hampden Watches, can be seen at BALLENGER'S.

VALUABLE BOOK.

Hon. Henry B. Russell's Life of McKinley and Hobart.

It is the object of this book to give a clear, impartial, authentic, and complete history of the public career and private lives of William McKinley and Garret Hobart from boyhood to the present date; to record facts, incidents, anecdotes, stories, and experiences that will reveal the true character of the men and enable us to see them exactly as they are.

It tells of the humble circumstances of McKinley's early days, of his life as a boy, of his years of unremitting toil, of his life as a country schoolmaster, of his splendid war record with its manifold thrilling experiences, of his career as a law student and country attorney, how he came to enter political life, of his achievements in Congress, of the manentoous events that have transpired since, and the prominent part he took in them; of his record as Governor of his marriage, his home life, and so forth. In short, it is the most complete and exhaustive record of his life and work that can be possibly written, for much of it was penned by his own hand. He supplied abundant material to the author, and gave him access to important data and facts that have not been supplied to any other writer.

This is not only the best but it is the cheapest campaign book extant. It gives more matter of better quality, and very much finer engravings than any other, is more handsomely printed, on better paper, more durably bound, and is sold for very much less money than any other was natural that he should be chosen as their biographer.

The illustrations are mainly from photographs supplied by McKinley himself and by members of his family. They are beautiful specimens of the engraver's skill.

We do not know when 546 pages have given us more genuine pleasure. If we speak warmly of the book, it is because it richly deserves it. It is sold only by agents, and is meeting with an enormous sale. Agents who introduce a work like this ought to be cordially welcomed.

We believe that the best way to keep out poor books is by introducing good ones, and a better one than this has never been brought to our notice. It is a high class book, richly illustrated, and sold at a marvelously low price. Put it into your homes. It will be read over and over again by old and young, with pleasure and lasting profit.

The work is published by the old and well-known firm of A. D. Worthington & Co., Hartford, Conn., who want agents everywhere for it, and whose imprint is sufficient guarantee of the excellence of the volume.

Mr. Henry R. Childs is making a canvass of Maysville and surrounding territory and will take pleasure in filling your order for this timely publication.

DIVORCE WANTED.

Captain J. C. Grannan Asks Legal Separation From His Wife.

Captain Joseph C. Grannan, head of the well known Grannan's Detective Bureau of Cincinnati, filed suit for divorce from his wife, Mrs. M. D. Grannan.

There seems to have been unhappiness in the home for many years, as he charges that for more than ten years she has refused to recognize the marital relation toward him, and has on many occasions at her home and in his place of business charged him with unfaithfulness toward her, and that her conduct toward him has wounded his feelings, and greatly impaired his health.

They were married in September, 1877, and have three children—Louis, 17; Withrow, 10, Marguerite, 8.

He asks for the custody of the two young children.

Last summer one of our grandfathers was sick with a severe bowel trouble.
Our Doctor's remedies had failed, then we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy, which gave very speedy relief. We regard it as the best medicine ever put on the market for
